It's time to step up,
not step back.

WHY ATTEND THE 10TH INDIA INTERNATIONAL SILK FAIR.

This physical trade fair on Indian Silk & Silk Blend products, is an encouraging step to bring the Buyers and their potential suppliers once again face to face under one roof.

The concept of organising virtual trade fairs world wide became an alternative to do business but there is no match when physical trade fairs are concern.

The Indian government has always encouraged the world business fraternity to come forward and engage into meaningful business relationship and mutual growth.

The council shall be subsidizing / providing travel grant by economy class fare (subject to the limit as prescribed by the committee) to the eligible buyers from overseas countries, under the MAI guidelines.

The council shall also be providing two nights complimentary stay in a 5 star hotel near the fair venue, during the fair, including pick-up from Delhi Airport, Two breakfast and working lunch at the fair venue, to the eligible buyers as approved by the Selection Committee of ISEPC.

A woman with dark hair styled in an updo, wearing a long-sleeved, high-necked red dress with a sequined collar and a high slit, is posing in a room with walls and floor made of large, dark brown hexagonal tiles. She is wearing red high-heeled shoes. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the woman and the texture of the tiles.
