Details

According to information, on February 23, 2007 (Friday), Mujahideen leaders led by Rabbani, Mohaqik, Sayyaf and others are organizing processions in the city of Kabul to commemorate the anniversary of first revolt against Soviet occupation of Afghanistan.

The processions numbering approximately 10000 would begin from different parts of Kabul and would cover all the important places in the city and finally terminate at Ghazi stadium. The processions have the possibility of turning violent.

All Indian nationals residing in Kabul would be well advised to curtail and avoid unnecessary movement in the city for their own safety and security. UN and other international organizations have declared high alert for the day.
