YOGA for Harmony and Peace

International Day of Yoga:

The United Nations General Assembly declared June 21 as the International Day of Yoga on December 11, 2014. Addressing the UN General Assembly on 27 September, 2014, the Prime Minister of India, Mr. Narendra Modi said: “Yoga is an invaluable gift of India’s ancient tradition. It embodies unity of mind and body; thought and action; restraint and fulfilment; harmony between man and nature; a holistic approach to health and well-being. It is not about exercise but to discover the sense of oneness with yourself, the world and the nature. By changing our lifestyle and creating consciousness, it can help us deal with climate change. Let us work towards adopting an International Day of Yoga.” On December 11, India’s Permanent Representative introduced the draft resolution in UNGA. The draft text received broad support from 177 Member States, including USA, and the draft text was adopted without a vote. Hence, June 21, 2015 was the first International Day of Yoga celebrated all over the world. In the same vein, Embassy of India, Kabul is planning to celebrate IDY 2017 on 21 June, 2017 and organise a series of events.
