

NOTICE

Please be advised that commercial air travel to India is still banned. Therefore, transit through third country also is not possible unless prior written approval is obtained. Travel permission can be applied only for emergency cases to Indian missions/posts abroad.

2. All are advised not to attempt to travel to India through third countries as you may get stranded in the transit area.